

CyberPT.com is the first website dedicated exclusively to the entire scope of physical therapy information and services. By being a comprehensive resource we are able to target a wide variety of individuals who require various needs associated with physical therapy.

By advertising on the CyberPT Site your organization will not only gain access to your target market but to secondary markets as well. Promote and further strengthen your company's position in your market through our various services which includes:

- general Internet and banner advertisement
- click-thru web traffic redirecting
- clinic listing advertisement
- job posting advertisement
- continuing education course advertisement
